Mountaigne of Westow.

ARMS :—Barry lozengy Or and Azure, on a chief Gules three cross-crosslets of the first.
CREST :—A crane's neck issuing out of rays, all Or.

I. THOMAS MOUNTAIGNE,[1] of Westow, in co. Ebor., mar. . . . daughter to . . . Hungate, of Saxton, in co. Ebor. They had issue—

[1] Sir Wm. Dugdale is possibly wrong in placing Thomas Mountaigne, of Westow, as father of the Archbishop of York and Isaac Mountaigne. The generally accepted legend is that the Archbishop was born of poor parents at Cawood, or at least went as a poor boy to the University. There certainly was a Thomas Mountaigne, notary public, of Westow, who died in 1596-7, and his wife Frances, who died in 1601 (see the following pedigree). They both left wills, but in them no mention is made of the Archbishop or of Isaac, who also are not named in the Parish Register of Westow.

How then did the Westow and neighbouring estates (which were sold in recent years by Mr. Savile Foljambe, though a small portion still remains in the possession of his brother, Lord Hawkesbury), come to the Mountaigne family? It may be that

1. George Mountaigne, Arch-Bisshop of Yorke, generally considered to have been born of humble parents at Cawood 1569, matriculated at Queen's Coll., Oxford, 10 Dec. 1586, removed to Cambridge, Fellow 8 July 1592, Chaplain to Earl of Essex at Cadiz in 1602, Rector of Great Cressingham, co. Norf. in 1610, Dean of Westminster, consecrated Bishop of Lincoln 1617, Bishop of London 1621, Bishop of Durham 1628, Archbishop of York 1 July 1628, but died 24 Oct. same year, bur. in Cawood Church. M.I. Nunc. will 12 Feb. 1626, pr. 5 July 1630.
2. Isack (II).

II. ISACK MOUNTAIGNE, of Westow, in co. Ebor., obijt a° 1648, executor and chief legatee of his brother, mar. Elizabeth, daughter to Thomas Bell, of Rochester, in Kent. They had issue—
1. George (III).
2. James Mountaigne, had lands at Westow from his brother, died 2 Nov. 1697, bur. at St. Mich.-le-Belfrey, York (Drake's York), mar. first Mary, daughter to William Wiggoner of Whitby, merchant, mar. secondly Margaret, dau. of William St. Quintin, of Hayton, bp. there 9 Dec. 1653. They had issue—
   Margaret.
3. Richard Mountaigne, of Barugh Major, summoned 3 Mar. 165$\frac{0}{1}$ at Malton, for proclaiming Chas. II, bp. at Westow 21 June 1624, bur. there 20 May 1672.
1. Elizabeth, mar. at Westow, 28 May 1632, Thomas Fairfax, of Dunsley.
2. Frances, mar. at Westow 17 Jan. 163$\frac{4}{5}$, Robert Gere, of Great Barugh, as second wife.
3. Isabella, bp. at Westow 15 Feb. 162$\frac{5}{6}$, mar. Thomas Hebblethwaite (son of Thomas Hebblethwaite and Mary Sotheby), who was slain at Manchester in service of Chas. I, (?) mar. secondly Peregrine Lascelles, of Lythe.

III. GEORGE MOUNTAIGNE, of Westow, in com. Ebor., Esqr., æt. 46 annor. a° 1666, with his father had to pay a composition of £155 11s. 0d., bur. at Westow 12 Sept.

the Archbishop purchased the property, or that somehow his brother Isaac obtained possession of it, but as yet no information is obtainable thereon. There might be no connection between the two families of Mountaigne at Westow.

On the other hand a similar pedigree to that of Dugdale was prepared by Dr. Nathaniel Johnston in 1701 for Francis Foljambe, who married Elizabeth Mountaigne. It is as in the text, though slightly different. According to this pedigree Richard Mountaigne, of Westow, gent., had Isaac, of Westow, who married Elizabeth, daughter of Thos. Bell, of Rochester, by Mary Woodrove, his wife, also the Archbishop.

In the Hungate pedigree there is no mention of a match between a daughter and a Mountaigne.

1669. M.I. Will 6 Sept, 1669, mar. Mary, 4th daughter to Sr Thomas Gore (Gower), of Stitnam (Stittenham), in co Ebor., Kt. & Bt., bur. at Westow 17 Nov. 1688. They had issue

1. Elizabeth, æt. 17o ann. 1666, b. at Westow 25 July 1647, mar. there 17 Sept. 1668, Francis Foljambe, Esq., of Aldwark and Steeton. She carried the estates of Westow, Menethorpe and Hutton Ambo (which were sold in 1871) into that family. She died at Aldwark 12, bur. at Ecclesfield 15 Sept. 1703.
2. Catherine, ætatis 14o an. 1666, mar. at Westow 10 Feb. 167$\frac{8}{9}$, Sir Thomas Rudston, Bart., of Hayton. They had issue.

Anne, d. young.

[1] There were two other sons, Charles and Edward, concerning whose legitimacy there have been different opinions. They are not in the Visitation Pedigree. It would seem by their father, Sir Thomas Fairfax's will, that they must have been illegitimate, for he does not call them sons, and mentions that by the request of his eldest son, Sir Thomas, he left them properties. Charles was of Brokett Hall, and left a will dated 11 May 1602, pr. 26 Apr. 1605, but he is said to have died abroad. Edward was a poet and the well known translator of Tasso's "Jerusalem Delivered"; he lived at Fewston and Leeds. There is an account of both in the "Dictionary of National Biography."

[1] Dugdale has probably made an error in placing Sir Thomas Bland as son of Robert Bland. He would most likely be his brother for the following reasons:—Sir Thomas in his will mentions his brothers James and Adam and his nephew Richard. Adam Bland also mentions in his will Richard, son of his brother James, his godson Adam, son of his nephew Sir Thomas, and his sister's son, William Gatonby.

[2] Adam Bland and Frances Hemsworth were married at Kippax 6 Feb. 159$\frac{6}{7}$ (Reg.).

1. George.
2. John (IX). Ancestor of the Leeds branch.

The above is the early part of the Thoresby pedigree entered by Sir W. Dugdale. According to the researches made by Mr. A. S. Ellis (see Thoresby Soc. Miscellanea, vol. ix, 112) it is manifestly incorrect, though as the antiquary was only seven years old at the time, he is not responsible for it.

Mr. Ellis considers it doubtful if Ralph Thoresby (VII) ever existed. The branch at West Cottingwith had been there for some generations and left their wills, three of which are copied by Mr. Ellis. He thinks it probable that it descends from John, a second son of George Thoresby (II).

We therefore must begin with Richard Thoresby, of West Cottingwith, whose will is dated in 1558, as under:—

A. RICHARD THORESBY, of West Cottingwith, in the parish of Thorganby. Will 25 Nov. 1558, pr. at York 23 Nov. 1563, to be bur. in Thorganby Church; mar. . . . , bur. in Thorganby Church They had issue—

[1] In this work the pedigrees have generally ceased with the extinction of the family in direct descent. An exception is made in this case as the same name was continued by the marriage of Mary Cholmeley with Nathaniel Cholmeley, of London. It does not seem known who he was, or if he claimed any real connection with the Whitby family. Sir Hugh in his will "is thankful to the Almighty Providence that from the East brought me a man of my owne family and that God has blessed his marriage with such hopeful issue to keep up my name and family." Nathaniel Cholmeley mentions in his will his brother John Cholmeley, of the City of London, Esq.

Christopher (see Langley of North Grimston).

VII. ARTHUR[1] LANGLEY, of Rathorpe Hall, in com. Ebor., mar. . . ., a . . . They had issue—

Richard (VIII).

[1] He is not mentioned in Glover's pedigree. His existence may be a mistake of Dugdale's, and it is possible that Richard (VI) went to the East Riding and that Arthur (VII) was the son of Richard (V), and remained at Rathorp. A son Arthur is mentioned in the latter's will, as above.

VIII. RICHARD LANGLEY, of Rathorp Hall. He had issue—
Arthur (IX).

II. FRANCIS LANGLEY, of Great Langton-upon-Swale, in com. Ebor., died circa an. 1636 and was there buried. Will 15 Apr., pr. at York 1 Nov. 1637; mar. Margaret, daughter of . . . Robinson of . . . in com. Ebor. They had issue—

1. Christopher Langley, of South Cowton, in com. Ebor., had six children as appears by his father's will.

[1] It seems not quite certain that Christopher Langley was son of Richard Langley, of Rathorp (VI) in the above pedigree. It is so stated in Glover (Foster's Ed. 117). The following entries occur in the Pocklington registers:—1563, 24 Jan., Margaret, da. of Richard Langley, bp.—1564, 6 Aug., Christopher, son of Richard Langley, bp.—1586, 1 Dec., Richard Langley, of Greenthorpe and Owsthorpe, hanged at York, Dec. 1, for harbouring Popish priests—1592, 11 Aug., Christopher Langley died. Dugdale only mentions Christopher, of near Durham, being father of Francis (II), and does not mention a son Richard. However, the pedigree would work out correctly if the suggestion in the note on p. 13 happens to be right. The Langley family were at Pocklington till 1722.

2. George (III).
3. Francis Langley, of Little Danby, in Com. Ebor., had four children as appears by his father's will.
4. John Langley, of Langton, in com. Ebor., mentioned in his father's will.

WILLIAM SYKES, a younger son, came into Yorkeshire and setled at Leedes. Had issue—

. . . SYKES, of Leedes. Had issue—

RICHARD SYKES, an Alderman.

The above is Dugdale's statement of the origin of this Leeds family, but the idea that it came from Sykes Dyke is unlikely and probably the above is not correct. By the Leeds Registers and York Wills it appears there was a James Sykes who died in 1577, having two sons, who predeceased him, so the following account is suggested :—

I. JAMES SYKES, of Kirkgate, Leeds, bur. at Leeds 27 May 1577. He had issue—

Watson, at Hutton Bushell, 23 Feb. 1601 (licence 9 Dec. 1619, Philip Wheath, clerk, Rector of Hinderwell, and Eliz^a Steward, of Lofthouse, wid., at either place). They had issue—

[1] In the Visitation of Cambridgeshire 1619, printed by the Harleian Society, there is a pedigree of Steward. Sir Thomas Steward, Knt., High Sheriff of Cambridge and Huntingdon, is mentioned as being son of Sir William Steward, of the Isle of Ely, by Catherine Panie, of Castell Acre, but there is no further information to connect this branch.

Zachary (IV).
Thomas, bp. at Easington 2 June 1613 ; named in his father's will.
